

The Weekly Jag— March 4th – 8th

Mr. Lasso's Principal Message

This week we will be having an early release on March 6, 7, and 8. Classes end at 11:15am. Lunch will be served. Bell schedules for these three days can be found below the newsletter.

As you might recall, we did a Thoughtexchange this past fall regarding the current bell schedule at ERHS. Here is a link to the results of that discussion. We anticipate having a final decision on the bell schedule at some point this month.

Academics

This past semester 93% of our students earned passing grades in their classes. We have been working as a staff to identify common barriers and interventions for the 7% of students who did not pass a course. Your continued support in consistently checking in with your student about his/her academic progress and attendance is appreciated.

Athletics and activities

Spring athletics started this week – and even with the crisp, cold weather the sun has been coming out on our athletes! Keep watching this space for upcoming cheer squad and dance team tryouts for next school year.

Counseling and career center

ASVAB test (military interest exam) will be given the morning of Wednesday, March 6th. Interested students should sign up with Mrs. Browning in the CCC.

Congratulations to our Junior Masonic Achievement Award recipients -- Yeena Kee, Hannah Scheerer, Erica Schieche, Emily Verran, and Maia Willebrand!

News

Auditions start Monday for the One Act plays. Be sure to check in with Mr. Tavern for your audition sheet!
